TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THESE FREE BENEFITS TO MEMBERS

✓ Realtor.com® Mobile applications and Collaborative Search

The most comprehensive real estate search on iPhone®, iPad®, Android™ or Windows®. Now, the agent-branded Collaborative Search allows you to invite clients to use the mobile app branded with your photo and contact information.

✓ Mobile listing website and flyer builder

Get your free mobile website and flyer builder for any of your for-sale or for-rent listing on realtor.com®. Instantly create a unique QR code for your listing.

✓ The FindSM Application

The FindSM Application is a professional data application exclusively for MLS members. The FindSM Application allows access to a national database with over 100 million property records, all MLS data on realtor.com®, multiple AVMs, school and neighborhood information and more. In addition, members will gain further consumer exposure on sold listings on realtor.com®.

✓ Realtor.com® International

Realtor.com® is global! Translated into 11 languages, the realtor.com® International site offers global and investment buyers the opportunity to view listings in their native language, switch currencies and measurements, and contact the listing agent/broker. All listings on realtor.com® are automatically presented on realtor.com® International. Visit <http://realtor.com/international>

✓ Open Houses

Realtor.com® can highlight Open House dates and times from the MLS data. Open House information will appear on the FREE Basic Listing and automate the process for ShowcaseSM Listing Enhancement customers. Consumers can search for scheduled Open Houses and sort listings by Open House Date.

✓ All new realtor.com® Agent Profile

All active members of the National Association of REALTORS®, who appear in the NRDS database, are also eligible to appear in the realtor.com® Find a REALTOR® directory. Members will need to claim their all new Agent Profile through the realtor.com® control panel in order to add their individual information such as photos, designations and areas of expertise. Additionally, your new realtor.com® Agent Profile can be your default ".REALTOR" domain location.

✓ Feature your sold listings on your new Agent Profile and on realtor.com®

In most locations, realtor.com® provides information on recently sold properties gathered from public record sources. In many areas, realtor.com® provides additional attribution for selling agents and brokers by featuring "recently sold" properties from MLS data on both realtor.com® and the new realtor.com® Agent Profile.

(Not available in all areas. Please check with your MLS to see if they provide your recently sold data to realtor.com®.)

✓ Realtor.com® training and events

Join realtor.com® in person at one of our trade events or Tech Savvy Live seminars and learn product information and real world application in the ever changing real estate marketplace. Tech Savvy Live focuses on results, not tools, and highlights the latest marketing strategies and techniques to help you connect with the mobile consumer.
